This application has now been referred to a Planning Meeting at NKDC, where the Parish Council will be given three minutes to verbally reinforce their previous support of this application. Cllr R Enstone agreed to do this.
Cllr Ireland returned to the Chair.

9 Litter picking in the village:

A letter had been received from a parishioner expressing concern at the amount of litter and suggested a litter pick be organised. It was agreed that this was an excellent idea, starting with North Rauceby and moving to South Rauceby on a separate occasion. The Clerk to write back asking for a preferred date and if possible a poster that can be circulated.

The Clerk to look at the cost of purchasing some litter sticks and to make enquiries from NKDC if they will collect the bags of rubbish.

10. Parish Open Meeting:

The meeting approved the flyer for distribution around the village.

11. Parish Elections:

Nomination forms were circulated. It is the responsibility of each councillor to ensure that their forms are delivered to NKDC by the 3 April. The Clerk has made an appointment to take them in if they are delivered to her by the 26th March. If the forms are rejected at that meeting, they will be returned to the councillor for them to resubmit.

12. Correspondence:

- Letter from Community Lincs – The Parish Council Insurance will no longer be administered by them but directly with Zurich.
- Letter from LCC – Seeking confirmation that Parish Council's had no objections to the current means of communication regarding planning matters. No objections.

13. Update on Outstanding Matters:

- Flooding Issues on Rauceby Drove and A153 - No response from Cllr R Davies to the email sent in January. The Clerk had pursued the matter and eventually Cllr M Storer had responded, promising to update the Parish Council at the meeting. However, he was not present to do this. It was agreed that a letter be sent to the Leader of the County Council expressing disappointment about the persistent absence of the County Councillor and the increasing safety concerns regarding the flooding issues.
- Room hire at Rauceby Village Hall – An invoice had now been received. Unfortunately, the hall was again double booked. Cllr Enstone to make enquiries about hiring the room at the school.

14. Finance:

- Financial Report – Circulated and approved. £14,755.06 in the current account.
- Cheques for approval:
